Response to the front-page story of the last Bryanette was so positive and immediate that the follow-up story deserves front-page attention in this issue. Some alumni sent in letters of approval and some sent their cash gifts immediately. But the greatest response came through Alumni President Larry Puckett's appeal in the college's annual Gifts-for-the-King Christmas mailing. During the month of December alumni sent in $4,000 for the MK Scholarship fund. Donations to the MK project have reached $9,000 for the first six months of the fiscal year. During the next six months the amount needed should run "over the top" to meet our challenge goal of $10,000 by June 30, 1985.

With the challenge grant of $5,000, this will mean that alumni support for MKs in the '85-'86 school year will total at least $10,000, or triple the amount of any past year.

Alumni gifts to the MK Scholarship fund have a twofold ministry. These dollars give direct aid to the MKs and their missionary parents and, at the same time, provide a direct financial boost for the Lord's work at Bryan College. With the larger amount of financial aid now available for children of missionary parents, Bryan will be even more attractive for them.

The financial aid office at Bryan has already put in place the new financial aid program for 1985 applicants. According to Mrs. Joyce Hollin, Bryan's financial aid officer, "Children of career missionaries who serve outside the United States will be awarded a $1,000 grant from Bryan College if they have documented need." It is noteworthy that this applies even if the parents are on furlough or retired.

Mrs. Hollin further states that "Other MKs may be considered if funds are available, but these awards will be made on a discretionary basis by criteria established by the financial aid office." New freshman students must be admitted continuing students will be on the same basis as the new program.

The MK Scholarship project is just one of many ways alumni have supported Bryan students over the years, but it has drawn more attention because of the challenge grant. On page four is the story of the fifty-year history of alumni support for virtually all areas of Bryan's needs. It is notable that this applies even if the parents are on furlough or retired.

Thanks to the super organizational efforts of Laurie Anderson ’80, the Dallas Alumni Fellowship Dinner attracted 89 guests who enjoyed fellowship with each other and with Dr. and Mrs. Robert Spoede as special guests. The event was held at White Rock Lake Park in the Winfrey Point recreation house. Guests enjoyed a catered dinner with a lovely view of the city of Dallas across the lake. Alumni dinner rallies will be held April 16 in northern Virginia and April 19 near Baltimore, Maryland.

In the recent tabulation of Bryan alumni who are active missionaries, 214 individuals have been identified as serving under 69 mission boards that represent all the continents except Australia. In addition, there are at least 72 others who have served for some period on the field, including 12 who have died while in service and two others who died after returning. Most of these students, it is notable that 9 of all Bryan alumni graduated who served in some mission capacity and 76 are active. The mission board chosen most frequently by Bryan alumni is Wycliffe Bible Translators, which has 38 Bryan alumni currently serving and one of the most active places in which Mid-Missions labored, followed by TEAM with 19 and SIM with 11.

In continental representation North America leads with 61 because including both home missionaries and foreign mission representatives on the staff offices, South America is second with 52, of whom about half are in Brazil, Africa and Asia each claim 39, and Europe, 21. At least 50 of the more assessed missionaries have been selected to be administered representatives for their respective missions. Among them are Dr. Jan Keay, general director of SIM International, and Dr. Harrison's son, vice president for development with Wycliffe Bible Translators. (1)

Editor's Note: Any corrections or additions to the missionary list will be welcomed.

MK student Don Bligeman, whose parents are missionaries in Bolivia, points out Sara Murdock,’53, one of Bryan’s youngest alumni missionaries, who is also serving in Bolivia.
Alumni Association Marks 50th Year

Four years ago the Bryan Life magazine emphasized the 50th anniversary of the opening of Bryan College. Last summer Bryanette and Bryan Life both carried news of the first "Golden Year" class—the graduates of 1934. (Remember the four graduates posed with a 1934 Ford on the front cover of Bryan Life?) These same people were among the organizers of the Bryan College Alumni Association.

On June 12, 1934, the day they received their diplomas and degrees, the eight members of the class of '34 met to form the "William Jennings Bryan Memorial University Alumni Association." A year later the new alumni completed their first project—a banquet honoring the 1935 graduates.

Fifty years later, as we witness work crews making a project out of cutting back the overgrown ivy on top of the administration building, it is hard to picture the Bryan Hill of 1934 with only the Octagon, the Pavilion, and a bleak foundation structure, sometimes described as a "very large hole in the ground," where the main building now stands.

Since that time the campus has grown to eleven permanent buildings; the small, awkward saplings that covered Bryan Hill are now gigantic, graceful oaks; and the Alumni Association has grown from the original eight graduates to five thousand eight hundred former student and alumni.

As early as the 1940's groups of Bryan alumni around the country met on frequent occasions—some even monthly. These companies of alumni deliberated prayerfully how they strengthen their support of the college.

The minutes of the early meetings of the Alumni Executive Committee reveal that the Constitution and the Annual Alumni Homecoming were proposed by these local chapters of alumni, some of whom met in areas at great distances from the campus.

One of the early chapters was the Northeastern chapter which met in the Philadelphia-South Jersey vicinity. They proposed the first constitution in picture the Bryan Hill of 1934 with only the Octagon, the Pavilion, and a

50 Year Total Alumni Financial Support

Alumni gifts to Bryan received the first seven months of the '84-'85 fiscal year total $74,362. This brings the fifty-year total to over $1,000,000, more than half of which has been given by alumni in the last five years.
30's and 40's

Ed'39 and Joyce (Hirschley)'40 deRosset celebrated in December their 40th anniversary of arrival in Peru. Also in that month they shared in the graduation of seven seminary students in the regular program plus three others who finished a degree in the theology program. The deRosset's help with a new work located about a mile from their house with as many as 250 children in the afternoon classes and to 20 attending a Sunday evening service. They are grateful for liberty to proclaim the Gospel in Trujillo.

Rhody '39 and Connie (Penick) '40 Ford are both active senior citizens in Lancaster, Kansas. Ministerial duties, presidency, and Rotary keep Rhody active; French I, Latin I and II, and English III are Connie's teaching assignments at Garrard County High School. Both Connie and Rhody have major families. Byron sing in the church choir at the Presbyterian Church, where they keep in close touch with their four children and eight grandchildren. Last summer they attended the 90th birthday celebration in Medina, Ohio, of Connie's mother, Mrs. Penick.

Glenn '40 and Elvira Klamn returned last September to Maine where Glenn accepted the pastorate of a church in West Enfield, about 25 minutes north of Bangor. They had left Maine earlier to make their home in Lynchburg, Virginia, near Hanvey Klamn x'70 and family.

Dr. Lester x'46 and Genevieve x'46 Pifer continue their ministry through Grace Brethren Home Missions from Winona Lake, Indiana. Lester, now in his 36th year with this work, is presently executive secretary of the Grace Brethren Home Mission Council. Her teaching assignments are in four countries with four church buildings. He has been a key figure in the development of the Fellowship of Grace Brethren Churches for the '84-85 conference year.

Dr. Jesse Humbird '43 and his wife, Laura (Epley) x'43 enjoy a quiet time at the Winona Lake alumni dinner along with Lester Pifer x'46.

Don x'54 and Jean Roberts are now in their 8th year in Cordell, Oklahoma, where Don pastors the Bible M. Church. Their church building has recently had an addition and some redecoration.

Ruth Ann (Adams) Cone '51 has been teaching part time in the English department at Grace College for three years and lives in Winona Lake, Indiana.

Tom '54 and Ruth (Butten) '51 Taylor spent a month last summer driving to California to visit relatives along the way and especially their daughter Lola and her husband and their three children in Los Angeles and their son, Doug and his family in San Diego. In Denver they saw Ruth's brother Tom Sutton x'50 and his wife, Marje, and their family. On the return trip they saw Bob x'53 and Rosalyn (Franklin) '51 Hearing in Utah after a productive last summer.

Cliff x'52 and Ruth Hanham continue their ministry at the Spanish church in Miami, Florida. The church is also helping children among Hispanics walking in truth. One couple has gone to earn a D. Miss. Salvador, where the husband is director of Bible Institute. They have made several trips to the Philippines plus Old Testament survey and the Book of Romans at the Christian Seminary. They are pleased that their son, Tito, who is a student at Bryan, is traveling this spring with the Bryan Messengers.

Wallace '52 and Ernie Biddle 1956 found 1980 to be a "big year." They operated a successful laundry business in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Their daughter, Terri, was born in February and March and included a visit to the Grand Canyon and on to California to visit friends. Fishing and travel in the summer were enjoyed. They are grateful to the Lord for His provision of "everything we need."

Bud '54 and Lolly (Gershart) '54 Fritz saw the completion last year of the reprinting of the basic Bible Doctrine books for Zinzendorf and students. He has also been writing articles with pictures and a few words to be used by teachers. Lolly has taken most of the work out of surgery but is walking now with pain-free "get up and go." Their daughter, Andrea, a 7-year-old. Then the family was increased by adoption a second daughter, Karen, presented with their first grandchild, Jamie. Last May they retired and moved to Medford, Oregon, where they are enjoying the climate, living in the country, and travelling.

Dawne '55 and June (Hiney) '56 Neddo had a good year with Young Teens Club in Lamorlaye, France, including their twin sons, Marc and Paul. At the European Bible Institute 16 graduates left to find their places of service. This year there are 85 students from 22 different countries, all involved in local ministries with some involvement in the puppet ministry. June is the Dean of Women. While in the U.S., Dawne discovered that he has cancer of the bladder and is taking treatments since they returned to France.

Dale '54 and Martha (Sheffield) '54 Payne recently moved across town in Campinas, Brazil, with the aid of a crew from Mississippi. They are enjoying a "get up and go" lifestyle and are planning to secure a telephone even before they moved in instead of "within two years" as is customary. The Payne's recently started services in a small building on Sunday evening, and home Bible study groups during the week. They are in the process of erecting a new building and have the foundation under way.

George '55 and Norma Haberer report the organization of two churches in New Guinea-first, Goroka Baptist Church. George is pastor of the newer church until a pastor is located, in addition to the main church, smaller native-style huts with thatched roofs serve for mid-week prayer meetings and talks of fellowship among people in areas where tribal fighting formerly prevailed.

Marlene Beek '56 was scheduled to return to her teaching responsibilities at Oacine Bible Institute in Colombia under TEAM in time for the opening of the new school year on February 4. She enjoyed a six-month furlough visiting with family and friends from her base in Wheaton, Illinois.

Pearl Ratbman '56 returned in January under TEAM to her radio programming ministry in Malawi. This year she has a daughter, Jessica became grandparents in the year of their 50th birthdays, with their daughter, Beth 16, and Weli Wood became parents of Laura Elizabeth last November. Jim is senior pastor of Benton Street Baptist Church in Kitchener, Ontario, and has three associate pastors on his staff. Twenty years ago Jim spearheaded the formation of Christian Hortons, a ministry to retarded persons, inspired by the birth of their own son, Steven. There are now 18 group homes for 130 residents, a camping program for 300 persons (16th summer in 1984), a headquarters building in Kitchener, and local chapters in Canada and a growing work in Michigan.

Bob and Marilyn (Steinberger) '56 Salazar have accepted call to help pioneer the Grace Brethren missionary work in Spain. They have spent 25 years in Peru during the last 10 years in Albuquerque and sixteen years in Taos, New Mexico. Their experiences include bi-lingual ministry, building radio programs, and directing an elementary and high school ministry which has helped equip them for their new work. The Salazars have three children: Rachel, a 13-year-old student; and Jefrey, a high school student who will accompany his parents. Warren '57 and Helen Allen are all in their fourth year at Heritage Christian School in Cedar Falls, Iowa. In spite of the challenging economic depression in the area, their school has reported a gain in enrollment. Last summer Warren was honored at an alumni fellowship meet held at the Pilgrim Academy in Egg Harbor City, New Jersey. At a chapel service in which he was the speaker, his son-in-law Robert Peterson '78, the present headmaster, presented him with a gold plaque naming him as Founder of Pilgrim Academy and Headmaster of the School. A room in the new lower school was dedicated to the honor of Warren and Helen Allen and the plaque was named after Warren A. Allen.

Dick '55 and Dona (Wells) '56 Nerdoo celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary last summer. They have been sharing with relatives and friends in Denver, Chicago, and Oklahoma. Dick edited the 18th volume of Deadline and his book-Crashing Markavick's "how to do the Bible." With Peter Lang, a Swiss publisher, Dona chatted up her 23rd year playing organ at Grace Brethren Church (formerly Cumberland Presbyterian Church). David '57 and Kay (Temple) '56 Henry recently had an extended overseas trip to see people and places of the rest of the world outside their home territory in Alaska, where they have served over 20 years among the Koyukon Indians under Wycliffe Bible Translators. On their way they had the opportunity to visit two missionary families in Sabah, Malaysia. At the end of January they prepared to leave Alaska for more travel, which reflects their new assignment with Wycliffe to help some of the other translators working in 45 different languages across the U.S. and Canada. Their first assignment was to assist a couple in translating for the Crow people of Montana. Their home base will continue to be Fairbanks, Alaska, where some of their children still live.

Lee and Shirley (Smiley) '57 Kilgour celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary on August 27. From mid-August until after Christmas they took a furlough away from their ministry at the Christian Servicemen's Center in Denver, Colorado. They enjoyed the privileges of a home in southern California for this rest time.

Lester x'58 and Mary (Graydon) '59 Dow have moved to Plano, Texas, to take advantage of a sabbatical in the area. They enjoyed the "Happenings" in the spring semester for the women of the seminary. Their oldest son, Mark, is married, has three children, and lives in Maine. The next three daughters are in Christian college or Bible institute, and the youngest, Daniel, is in Christian high school.

Maureen (Hay) '58 and Ed Reed rejoiced last October when their nine-year-old adopted daughter Anne from Korea became a citizen of the United States along with 58 others. In July the family, including also James, 16, Susan Joy (adopted Vietnamese daughter) 15, and Michael, 13, went to New England for a visit with friends and a tour of historic sites.

Ralph Hayes '59 is assistant to the president of Continental Industrial Co. of Elkhart, Indiana, and in this position travels to various parts of the country, taking his wife, Mary with him. He has completed the Ed.D. from Butler University and also the Ed.D. degree from Indiana University.

Jesse x'60 and Ghylda (Mightell) '57 Deloe live in Winona Lake, Indiana, where Jesse is assistant to the president of Grace College. Gladys is completing her college work this year at Purdue University where she is a member of the women's basketball team. Deloe has new addition to the family, a daughter, Andrea, a 7-year-old. Then the family was increased by adoption a second daughter, Karen, presented with their first grandchild, Jamie. Last May they retired and moved to Medford, Oregon, where they are enjoying the climate, living in the country, and travelling.

Janie Voss '65 continues teaching at Faith Academy in Manila, Philippines. During the summer she tutored two Korean girls, children of missionaries, and was also expecting to help a Jamaican/Brasilian fourth grade boy. In July Janie went in which she invited a 14-year-old, Alexandra Graham, to live with them so she can as a government worker's daughter at the American Academy and Faith Academy, which is mainly for missionary children.

Illinois to Atlanta, Georgia, late in 1984. Karen is working for Vining House Publishers and Dave is working for Covington Square Hotel.
Wesley and Lori (Currie) ’78 Taber are living in Chicago as they continue their ministry with the American Messianic Fellowship. They enjoy memories of their time spent in Israel and frequently hear from the friends they made in Israel.
Greg ’80 and Carol (Smith) ’79 Cromemre report that Probe Ministries is growing, with their radio program now being aired on 25 stations. One of their syndicated newspaper columns has been picked up by the Los Angeles Herald Examiner and Boston Globe, in addition to Miami Herald, the Dallas Morning News, the San Jose Mercury and many smaller papers around the country. The col-num deal with current events from an enlightened perspective. Another presentation is a weekly radio program called “Between Rock and a Hard Place,” which is a critique of the rock music scene with tips to parents.

Billy and Lisa (Coker) ’79 Griffith were accepted as missionaries with TransWorld Radio, last September to serve in Bonaire. Billy will be in purchasing and inventory control and Lisa will be teaching in the missionary children. They hope to support by July 1985. Their daughters are Ashleigh and Carol Ann.
